WILL HAVE A BIG RIVAL

Independent Companies Are to Fight the Bell.

COMBINATION MADE IN THE EAST

Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana Have Watched and Learned, and Are Now Going Into the Business on a Large Scale. Millions Back of the Enterprise.

The Bell Telephone company is destined to soon find itself involved in a business way with a most formidable competitor. At least that company is to be confronted by strong opposition in the three great states of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. In the states mentioned within the past two months all the various telephone companies, aside from the Bell companies, doing a separate business in cities and towns, have secretly combined into state organizations.

These state organizations have formed a tri-state combination. Here is the nucleus of what promises as powerful a national organization as is the Bell company. Within the past couple of weeks, the state organizations of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania quietly appointed delegates to meet in New York to perfect arrangements looking to a closer combination of interests in the three states. These delegates were particularly to provide for a system of trunk line connections between all points involved in the three states. In other words the delegates were to arrange for the long distance telephone system. They met in conference with financiers and others who make of such matters a business, and now announce that they have about accomplished the object of their visit to the East.

The information will not surprise most persons that the invested capital represented at the conference is a little in excess of $4,000,000. An idea as to the growth of the use of the telephone may be gained from this, and also from the further fact that towns of 5,000 inhabitants have their own telephone companies.

In Ohio 62 such cities and towns have such companies; in Indiana, 61, with Pennsylvania close on to 60. To connect all these exchanges upon one trunk or long distance telephone line is the intention of the combination. The managers claim that in the short existence of the many exchanges interested greater progress has been made in the business than with the older company. They also claim that with the combined interests of the state of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania they have a far better basis for a national organization than the Bell company had when it was organized.

The extent to which this will effect this vicinity is readily seen. With local companies down the river and a movement in their favor in Pittsburgh it will not be long until East Liverpool, right in the path of connection, will have its local exchange. It is the opinion of men of business that the movement will only serve to increase the efficiency of the Bell system. Two well known East Liverpool men are interested in the company.

STOPPED THE FIGHT.

A Plucky Young Lady Who Objected to Pugilism.

There was enacted a scene in Washington street, last night, which was of interest. School was out, and the street was full of children. Two small boys, who had quarreled because of their opinion of the big pugilists, began to fight. They were giving upper cuts and lower cuts, body blows and side issues when a little lady stepped from the pavement, and with determination clearly written in every feature of her pretty face told them they must cease. They gazed at her in surprised astonishment for a few minutes, and then continued the battle. But the peace maker would have peace if she had to fight for it. Taking one youngster by the ear she pulled him away from his antagonist. That ended the battle, and amid a shout from the crowd the little lady daintily brushed the dirt from her skirts, and regaining the pavement, walked quietly away.

THAT SPRINKLER.

A Diamond Merchant Cannot Understand Why It Is Not Used.

"I am very thankful because it rained last evening," remarked a Diamond business man this morning. "For the last few days it has been so dusty it has been an impossibility to keep a store room clean. Why the sprinkler was not out is a question hard to solve, unless it is through an endeavor to save water. It is bad enough to have the streets dirty without having the air filled with dust at all times, and I, for one, would like very much to get a glimpse of the sprinkler when it is needed."

TO THE PUBLIC.

The News Review Job Office In Superb Form.

The NEWS REVIEW job office is now in better condition for turning out first-class job work than at any period in its history. Frank Leslie Trump has charge of this department. He is a skillful workman, an artist in his specialties, careful, reliable and conscientious. For the past five years he has had control of the composing room of this paper, and the merchants and business men of East Liverpool award him the verdict of turning out advertisements far superior to those of any other paper in the city or county. He is equally an artist in the line of job work, of every description and character, and his work will fully demonstrate this fact to each and every one of the patrons of the NEWS REVIEW. Another pleasing feature is that Mr. Trump is methodical and systematic in his work, and that he will have jobs in readiness for patrons at the time promised or designated.

John Powell, well and favorably known in East Liverpool, and formerly connected with this paper, has again assumed control of the fine presses in this department. John is a master in his art, and no work will pass from his hands that will not give entire approval and full satisfaction to customers.

The manager of the NEWS REVIEW is justly proud of his present force of able workmen, in all departments, and is enabled, through their skill, care and reliability, to absolutely guarantee first-class work in every particular.

THAT VEHICLE TAX.

It Will Not Down and Solicitor Grosshans Has a Word.

Has the city, in exercising its right to regulate vehicles used for hire, the future right to assess and collect, as incident thereto, a tax for the purpose of keeping up the repair of paved streets, and paying the city's share of paved intersections? This is the question which arises in the letter which Attorney Brooks addressed to City Solicitor Grosshans, yesterday. A prominent city official in speaking about the above, said:

"The city had a good source of revenue in the vehicle tax, and should have kept it up. The city treasury is in a fair condition, but within a few months it will be almost straitened. Here is where your special taxation comes in. Section 2670 provides that a city council has a right to establish and keep in repair the streets of a city by a special revenue of this kind. Three dollars are not too much for this tax."

THE CONCERT WAS ENJOYABLE.

And All Who Attended The Hibernian Banquet Were Pleased.

The concert at the Grand last evening by St. Aloysius church was one of the finest ever given by home talent, and was attended by a packed house. The performance of the children showed very careful training, and reflected great credit upon their instructors. The solo of Professor Harper was enthusiastically received.

The banquet given by the Ancient Order of Hibernians at Bradshaw hall was a very enjoyable affair. Guests to the number of 150 sat down to a table laden with all the delicacies of the season. The address of Col. Felix McKnight, of Pittsburgh, was very interesting, and was listened to with rapt attention.

HOW THEY WILL PLAY.

Makeup of the Baseball Teams For Tonight.

Called to Cleveland.

Miss Peters, teacher of the science department of the Central school, was called to Cleveland this morning on account of the illness of her mother. No substitute could be found to fill her place.

BUILD A WORKHOUSE

Why Not Make a Complete Job of the Jail?

IT COSTS MONEY TO PUNISH MEN

The County Pays It to Stark and Has Sent Not a Little to Cleveland—There Is Enough Wickedness to Support an Institution of This Kind.

It is suggested that the county make a complete job of the proposed jail, and in addition to erecting a building where prisoners can be confined, make the necessary arrangements to have them work out the amounts that justice may have placed against their names.

The matter has been discussed at some length in this place, and there are any number of people who believe it would be the right thing. They argue that there is enough wickedness in the county to support such an institution, and the money now paid to other counties for the punishment of prisoners could be kept at home. Not a term of court rolls around without a number of unruly ones being sent to the works, while the probate court frequently adds punishment of that sort. Some towns in the county have contracts with Stark county, and send their prisoners there, while others who have no such arrangement are compelled to wink at a certain amount of wickedness because it costs money to keep prisoners in jail. If the county could take care of them in a workhouse there would be more justice and less crime of the kind to which they are addicted.

Another argument is that the county is growing. Within a decade the population will be very much larger than it is at present. New industries will bring many more people, and the increase in crime will be at least proportionate. The jail is to be built not only to meet present demands, but to provide for the future. Columbiana county has no desire to erect a new jail every year. What is done now must endure for some time. While it is possible a workhouse would be by no means a paying investment at present, there is the future to be considered.

This is the way the advocates of the workhouse argue. They look upon their side of the question as being the best, and believe the commissioners should think seriously on it before their decision is made.

FOUGHT TO A FINISH.

Birds From the City Captured Some West End Money.

It is said that a few sports enjoyed a lively chicken fight in a West End barn last night. There were a number of fights, birds from Bradshaw addition and other sections of the city proper being pitted against an equal number from Wellsville and West End. Some money changed hands on the result, the sports from town taking all the other fellows could muster as their chickens were by far the best stock, and won from the start. The main was kept quiet until today.

IN THE FIELD.

Harry Cartwright Will Be a Candidate For Auditor.

The campaign next spring promises to be much livelier than that of this year, and already candidates are appearing in force. The last announcement heard in that line is that of Harry Cartwright, who will be a candidate for auditor. Mr. Cartwright has many friends in the county who will be glad to hear of his determination.

Another pronounced candidate is Frank Adams, the present deputy in Auditor Harvey's office. It is said there will be others.

ONLY AN EXPERIMENT.

There Are Reasons Why the Primaries Should Be Held Earlier.

The determination of the county committee to hold the primaries next year the first Saturday in June meets with general approbation, but there are reasons which may prevent the carrying out of the plan. The county must make its selection of delegates to the state and congressional conventions, and if these are held before the first of June it will be necessary to change the date of our primaries to the old time of April or March.

TAKING STOCK.

Almost Enough For the Cannery Has Been Subscribed.

terday. They believe it will be much more difficult to place the remaining $1,500. Mr. Taylor is confident that the deal would be made, and will return here next week to make the final arrangements.

IN THE CITY BATTLE.

Trades Council Endorses Several Candidates.

There was a great deal of disappointment at the open meeting of Trades council last evening owing to the failure of D. J. Smith, the orator of the evening, to appear. There was a large audience in attendance who were very anxious to hear his address upon taxation. The business meeting was a short one. Thomas Woods, a delegate from local union No. 4, was obligated and seated in the council. All locals reported prosperity in regard to membership and financial condition. The report of the treasurer was read, and referred to the auditing committee. The committee on the revision of the constitution of the council reported progress.

E. W. Hill, a delegate from the Grocery Clerks' union, was endorsed for justice of the peace, James Cochran for member of council from the Fourth ward and Harvey McHenry for councilman from the First ward. After a general discussion in regard to having a minister address the council on the labor question the first Sunday in May the matter was left to a committee composed of E. W. Hill, Thomas Hodge and Charles W. Brownfield.

The action of the council in giving its endorsement to candidates for municipal offices was not altogether unexpected, and was the source of much comment in the city today.

Mr. Smith was in the city today, and stated that he was unable to attend the meeting last night because of illness. He has not been well for some time, and his physician would not allow him to leave home last night.

SCOTT LOT THROWN OVER.

The Christian Church Is Considering Another Site.

At the meeting of the Christian church board held last evening a report from the lot committee appointed to secure a few additional feet to the Scott property was received. It consisted of an offer from Mr. Frost to sell them 10x71 feet for the sum of $700. This would make the Scott lot 60x71 feet, and the total cost would be $1,700. Then a new proposition from Mr. Bradshaw on his Broadway property, was put before the board, this time at a much lower figure. It is proposed to sell about 70 feet of the north point on which are some buildings, leaving a tract of an angle 66 feet wide with an average length of about 72 feet, which will admit of a building 50x68 feet, placing it on line of both alleys, and an annex of 16x54 feet, giving a seating capacity of about 600 when all is put in one room. While this will not accommodate quite as many seatings as the Scott lot, and not admit of a basement, it is in the minds of many of the board a more central location, and as Mr. Bradshaw has made quite a reduction from the former price, the board feel it their duty to seriously consider the matter. A portion of the present site being sold, Mr. Bradshaw proposes to donate $1,500, and make the net cost of the remaining tract to the church $6,000. It is expected this proposition will be accepted by the board tonight.

WEST END KICKS.

It Has Determined to Have Better Streets.

Something should be done toward putting the Franklin street hill and Eighth street in better condition before spring opens and the mud grows deeper. Last week the mud was so deep the teamster for the West End pottery was compelled to haul one cask of ware on his dray and haul it to Seventh street, then unload, and go back after a cask at a time until he had hauled enough to make a full load. The people of West End are only waiting until the difficulty with the railroad company in regard to the Eighth street culvert is settled, when they will go to council with a petition, signed by every property owner from Sixth street to the Jethro trestle, asking that the streets be paved. They say that while every other part of the city has been given improvements they have been granted nothing.

IN COURT.

A Case With Many Witnesses Is Being Heard.

The hearing of Anna Smith and Mrs. DeBee, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was heard this afternoon in the mayor's office. There are 23 witnesses to be heard, and at the time of going to press the case was still being heard.

THE RIGHT MUST WIN

The Evangelist Tells of God's Temporal Blessings.

GOOD SEED PLANTED IN THIS CITY

God Gave David Help In Every Struggle For the Right—The Master Ordains That Truth Shall Win—He Helps Business Men of Clean Life and Pure Principle.

The evangelist held a splendid meeting last night. There was not a large audience present, as meetings were being held in various churches in the city. Quite a number of people came in after services were closed at their places of regular worship. Intense interest was manifested, and the evangelist's heart and life was gladdened. Great good has been accomplished in the present series of evangelistic meetings, and seed has been sown which promises a rich harvest for the Master. Quite a number have confessed conversion, and only God knows how great success will be recorded on the books to be opened in the great day of final reckoning. Evangelist Naylor expresses heartfelt thanks to those who have stood by him in his battle for right, truth, purity, clean life and Godliness, and sends up earnest prayers to heaven that his coworkers may have peace and prosperity on this earth, and a glorious reward in heaven.

Last night's services consisted of testimonies of God's goodness, from the lips of those who love God and who have received help from Jesus in this life, after which the evangelist made a brief talk along the line of God helping the individual who accepts Christ and then works in accordance with the divine commands.

"God stood by his servant David all the way through; and he will stand by every Christian man and woman of the present day. The Master stood by David when the latter was attacked by the savage lion and the angry bear; stood by him when he went out against Goliath of Gath, and gave him a glorious victory. Hear the last words of David ring out: 'Let the God of my salvation be exalted.' Look at the children of Israel as they stood by the waters of the Red sea. See them, down-hearted and desponding, crying out against Moses, and complaining that they had far better have remained in Egypt. No human agency could save them from destruction and from Pharaoh's wrath. Then our God came to their rescue, and Moses, as the servant of our Master, caused the waters to divide, and the children of Israel passed safely over. The enemy pursued, but the same servant of God caused the angry waters to overwhelm them, destroying Pharaoh and his army. Look at the three Hebrew children, in their devotion to God, magnificent in their faith, defying the earthly king and his mandates, confident in the power of God to rescue them. See Jesus make one in their midst as they stood in the seething flames. Our blessed Christ robbed the flames of their power to destroy. Daniel in the den of lions, fearless and trusting, and the maddened, hungry, starving brutes dared not attack him, as the angel of God stood by his side. I have known business men, harassed and almost pushed to the wall, go on their knees before God and ask for help; and, praise his holy name, our God came to their rescue. We always do when you comply with the requirements. What a wonderful friend we have. The God of temporal, spiritual and personal salvation. Praise his holy name."

Meeting tonight and tomorrow night. No meeting on Saturday night. "The King's Business" will be the subject for Sunday morning's service. Don't miss the meeting Sunday afternoon, at 2:30. There will be a regular orchestra in attendance, and some grand music will await you, as Evangelist Naylor takes the ground that the best must be given the Lord.

A GOOD RECORD.

Doctor Tracy Had Wonderful Success at Allegheny.

Doctor Tracy will tonight close an intensely interesting series of meetings at Carnegie hall, Allegheny, and will on Saturday night speak on the Southside. The doctor has had wonderful success, and the large audience room has been crowded to the doors every night. Much good has been accomplished.

Signed Contracts.

John Godwin and James Webber today signed contracts to play with the Jackson team of the Michigan league. Godwin will play short and Webber first base. Both men are first class players, and will undoubtedly be found in faster company next season.

If the county could take care of them in a workhouse there would be more justice and less crime of the kind to which they are addicted.

Another argument is that the county is growing. Within a decade the population will be very much larger than it is at present. New industries will bring many more people, and the increase in crime will at least be proportionate. The jail is to be built not only to meet present demands, but to provide for the future. Columbiana county has no desire to erect a new jail every year. What is done now must endure for some time. While it is possible a workhouse would be by no means a paying investment at present, there is the future to be considered.

This is the way the advocates of the workhouse argue. They look upon their side of the question as being the best, and believe the commissioners should think seriously on it before their decision is made.

FOUGHT TO A FINISH.

Birds From the City Captured Some West End Money.

It is said that a few sports enjoyed a lively chicken fight in a West End barn last night. There were a number of fights, birds from Bradshaw addition and other sections of the city proper being pitted against an equal number from Wellsville and West End. Some money changed hands on the result, the sports from town taking all the other fellows could muster as their chickens were by far the best stock, and won from the start. The main was kept quiet until today.

IN THE FIELD.

Harry Cartwright Will Be a Candidate For Auditor.

The campaign next spring promises to be much livelier than that of this year, and already candidates are appearing in force. The last announcement heard in that line is that of Harry Cartwright, who will be a candidate for auditor. Mr. Cartwright has many friends in the county who will be glad to hear of his determination.

Another pronounced candidate is Frank Adams, the present deputy in Auditor Harvey's office. It is said there will be others.

ONLY AN EXPERIMENT.

There Are Reasons Why The Primaries Should Be Held Earlier.

The determination of the county committee to hold the primaries next year the first Saturday in June meets with general approbation, but there are reasons which may prevent the carrying out of the plan. The county must make its selection of delegates to the state and congressional conventions, and if these are held before the first of June it will be necessary to change the date of our primaries to the old time of April or March.

TAKING STOCK.

Almost Enough For the Cannery Has Been Subscribed.

Mr. Taylor stated this morning that almost enough stock had been taken to insure the success of the canning factory. The interested parties are working hard, and experienced no difficulty in disposing of $3,500 worth of stock yesterday.

terday. They believe it will be much more difficult to place the remaining $1,500. Mr. Taylor is confident that the deal would be made, and will return here next week to make the final arrangements.

IN THE CITY BATTLE.

Trades Council Endorses Several Candidates.

There was a great deal of disappointment at the open meeting of Trades council last evening owing to the failure of D. J. Smith, the orator of the evening, to appear. There was a large audience in attendance who were very anxious to hear his address upon taxation. The business meeting was a short one. Thomas Woods, a delegate from local union No. 4, was obligated and seated in the council. All locals reported prosperity in regard to membership and financial condition. The report of the treasurer was read, and referred to the auditing committee. The committee on the revision of the constitution of the council reported progress.

E. W. Hill, a delegate from the Grocery Clerks' union, was endorsed for justice of the peace, James Cochrane for member of council from the Fourth ward and Harvey McHenry for councilman from the First ward. After a general discussion in regard to having a minister address the council on the labor question the first Sunday in May the matter was left to a committee composed of E. W. Hill, Thomas Hodge and Charles W. Brownfield.

The action of the council in giving its endorsement to candidates for municipal offices was not altogether unexpected, and was the source of much comment in the city today.

Mr. Smith was in the city today, and stated that he was unable to attend the meeting last night because of illness. He has not been well for some time, and his physician would not allow him to leave home last night.

SCOTT LOT THROWN OVER.

The Christian Church Is Considering Another Site.

At the meeting of the Christian church board last evening a report from the lot committee appointed to secure a few additional feet to the Scott property was received. It consisted of an offer from Mr. Frost to sell them 10x71 feet for the sum of $700. This would make the Scott lot 60x71 feet, and the total cost would be $4,700. Then a new proposition from Mr. Bradshaw on his Broadway property, was put before the board, this time at a much lower figure. It is proposed to sell about 70 feet of the north point on which are some buildings, leaving a tract of an angle 66 feet wide with an average length of about 72 feet, which will admit of a building 50x68 feet, placing it on line of both alleys, and an annex of 16x54 feet, giving a seating capacity of about 600 when all is put in one room. While this will not accommodate quite as many seatings as the Scott lot, and not admit of a basement, it is in the minds of many of the board a more central location, and as Mr. Bradshaw has made quite a reduction from the former price, the board feel it their duty to seriously consider the matter. A portion of the present site being sold, Mr. Bradshaw proposes to donate $1,500, and make the net cost of the remaining tract to the church $6,000. It is expected this proposition will be accepted by the board tonight.

WEST END KICKS.

It Has Determined to Have Better Streets.

Something should be done toward putting the Franklin street hill and Eighth street in better condition before spring opens and the mud grows deeper. Last week the mud was so deep the teamster for the West End pottery was compelled to load one cask of ware on his dray and haul it to Seventh street, then unload, and go back after a cask at a time until he had hauled enough to make a full load. The people of West End are only waiting until the difficulty with the railroad company in regard to the Eighth street culvert is settled, when they will go to council with a petition, signed by every property owner from Sixth street to the Jethro trestle, asking that the streets be paved. They say that while every other part of the city has been given improvements they have been granted nothing.

IN COURT.

A Case With Many Witnesses Is Being Heard.

The hearing of Anna Smith and Mrs. DeBee, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was heard this afternoon in the mayor's office. There are 29 witnesses to be heard, and at the time of going to press the case was still being heard.

THE RIGHT MUST WIN

The Evangelist Tells of God's Temporal Blessings.

GOOD SEED PLANTED IN THIS CITY

God Gave David Help In Every Struggle For the Right—The Master Ordains That Truth Shall Win—He Helps Business Men of Clean Life and Pure Principle.

The evangelist held a splendid meeting last night. There was not a large audience present, as meetings were being held in various churches in the city. Quite a number of people came in after services were closed at their places of regular worship. Intense interest was manifested, and the evangelist's heart and life was gladdened. Great good has been accomplished in the present series of evangelistic meetings, and seed has been sown which promises a rich harvest for the Master. Quite a number have confessed conversion, and only God knows how great success will be recorded on the books to be opened in the great day of final reckoning. Evangelist Naylor expresses heartfelt thanks to those who have stood by him in his battle for right, truth, purity, clean life and Godliness, and sends up earnest prayers to heaven that his coworkers may have peace and prosperity on this earth, and a glorious reward in heaven.

Last night's services consisted of testimonies of God's goodness, from the lips of those who love God and who have received help from Jesus in this life, after which the evangelist made a brief talk along the line of God helping the individual who accepts Christ and then works in accordance with the divine commands.

"God stood by his servant David all the way through; and he will stand by every Christian man and woman of the present day. The Master stood by David when the latter was attacked by the savage lion and the angry bear; stood by him when he went out against Goliath of Gath, and gave him a glorious victory. Hear the last words of David ring out: 'Let the God of my salvation be exalted.' Look at the children of Israel as they stood by the waters of the Red sea. See them, down-hearted and desponding, crying out against Moses, and complaining that they had far better have remained in Egypt. No human agency could save them from destruction and from Pharaoh's wrath. Then our God came to their rescue, and Moses, as the servant of our Master, caused the waters to divide, and the children of Israel passed safely over. The enemy pursued, but the same servant of God caused the angry waters to overwhelm them, destroying Pharaoh and his army. Look at the three Hebrew children, in their devotion to God, magnificent in their faith, defying the earthly king and his mandates, confident in the power of God to rescue them. See Jesus make one in their midst as they stood in the seething flames. Our blessed Christ robbed the flames of their power to destroy. Daniel in the den of lions, fearless and trusting, and the maddened, hungry, starving brutes dared not attack him, as the angel of God stood by his side. I have known business men, harassed and almost pushed to the wall, go on their knees before God and ask for help; and, praise his holy name, our God came to their rescue. He always does when you comply with the requirements. What a wonderful friend we have. The God of temporal, spiritual and personal salvation. Praise his holy name."

Meeting tonight and tomorrow night. No meeting on Saturday night. "The King's Business" will be the subject for Sunday morning's service. Don't miss the meeting Sunday afternoon, at 2:30. There will be a regular orchestra in attendance, and some grand music will await you, as Evangelist Naylor takes the ground that the best must be given the Lord.

A GOOD RECORD.

Doctor Tracy Had Wonderful Success at Allegheny.

Doctor Tracy will tonight close an intensely interesting series of meetings at Carnegie hall, Allegheny, and will on Saturday night speak on the Southside. The doctor has had wonderful success, and the large audience room has been crowded to the doors every night. Much good has been accomplished.

Signed Contracts.

John Godwin and James Webber today signed contracts to play with the Jackson team of the Michigan league. Godwin will play short and Webber first base. Both men are first class players, and will undoubtedly be found in faster company next season.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, MARCH 18.

LET US SEE. Isn't there a town named

Canton some place in this part of the world?

THERE is as much stir in the county

Democracy as one is apt to find in the heart of a thousand ton rock.

HAVING become identified with the yellow kidism of New York journalism

Senator Ingalls is now not even worthy to represent Kansas.

REMEMBER that the men chosen at the Republican primaries next Saturday have the best of chance for being the city's new officers. It is therefore your duty to vote for the right men.

It really seems as though the dogs of war are to be loosed in the east, and the world will say so much the better if the laws of common humanity can only in this way be enforced in Turkey.

THE Dingley tariff bill is no experiment. We know what protection has done in the past, and we have every reason to believe its good work will be repeated. Those people who only hope for the success of the measure should read up a little.

VOTE FOR THE JAIL.

The plan to submit the question of a new jail to the voters of the county will meet with general approval. It not only deprives the commissioners of all responsibility and prevents anything like dissatisfaction, but allows the matter to remain in the hands of the people where it by right belongs. And let a word be said here for the jail. Vote for it. The county needs it. Support it yourself, and do all you can to have your neighbor do likewise. The jail now in use is a disgrace to the county, an evidence that Columbiana is not as careful in some things as it might be.

JOHNNY MCCLAIN'S CLAIM.

The only claim Johnny McClain has upon the Democrats of Ohio lies in the fact that he is rich. His work in politics has never amounted to more than campaign contributions, and his training has not been of that order calculated to fit him for a seat in the senate. He was a rabid silver man last year, but that is no recommendation. It would not allow him to represent the people of the Buckeye state, but would on the other hand permit him to vote against the direct wishes of the people. Mr.

McClain has no claims upon the state, and Mr. McClain may soon discover it.

THE NEWS REVIEW LEADS.

As usual the NEWS REVIEW leads.

Within a few minutes after the decisive blow had been struck at Carson City, and while other newspapers were patiently waiting for the news, the result of the fight had been announced by a bulletin at the NEWS REVIEW and the paper was on the street. Minutes elapsed before the crowds in front of the bulletins up town knew the result, and in one place where the report was being received the first knowledge of it came from the NEWS REVIEW. It was a little incident, but serves to show that as usual the NEWS REVIEW leads.

MR. WILSON'S OBJECTIONS.

The country will do nothing more serious than smile at the criticisms which William L. Wilson has seen fit to heap upon the Dingley tariff bill.

Mr. Wilson is simply making an exhibition of himself, "holy show," as his former constituents would put it. He is not in position to criticize. He tried the tariff producing business once himself, and his failure was so pronounced, so successful as a failure, that the whole world will laugh at it for years to come.

He is a back number. His place is not among the enterprising, energetic people of America, but, like his friends, he should retire at once from public life, and have the good grace to keep still.

EUROPE WILL RUE IT.

Greece Intends to Retaliate on the Powers by Plunging Europe Into a War—Blockade of Crete Now On—Greeks Anxious to Fight.

ATHENS, March 18.—The Asty, voicing the general opinion entertained here, declares that owing to the blockade Greece will place the powers in a dilemma. They must either avow themselves the allies of Turkey or become witnesses of a duel whose issue is less certain than Europe wishes to believe.

LONDON, March 18.—A dispatch to the London Times from Athens states that a strict blockade of Crete has been begun. Apparently there will be no blockade of Greek ports for some time to come. The insurgents in Crete are building fortifications at various strategic points under the direction of Greek officers.

"The unthinking Greek multitude," says the Times' correspondent, "has caught the war fever in its worst form. It is vain to hope that the malady will assume a milder type, and reflecting people regard the future with the greatest misgivings, knowing that Greece can hardly fail to be the loser whatever happens. The whole nation, however, is aroused in a manner never seen in any previous crisis, and the powers ought to neglect no possible means to secure Greek compliance."

SITIA, Crete, March 18.—In consequence of an attack made by Cretan Christians upon a number of foreign officers, the commanders of the British, French and Italian warships have notified the insurgents of their intention to bombard today the village not far from Sitia, where the attack was made.

MORE HIGH WATER.

The Mississippi Still Rising Above Memphis—Great Distress.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 18.—Hundreds of people, mostly negroes, have been landed on the Memphis levee by the relief steamers that are daily visiting the flooded districts adjacent to Memphis. Vague reports have reached this city of the drowning of several people in Arkansas, but these cannot be verified. For the first time in many days the river is stationary, marking 36.6, but the rise at Cairo and the reported heavy rains in Missouri and other states will only serve to increase the broad expanse of water in this vicinity. There has been a steady down-pour of rain in Arkansas and west Tennessee.

At Cairo the gauge indicates 49.6 feet. At Helena a rise of four-tenths of a foot occurred in 24 hours, the gauge showing 43.9 feet. Heavy rains throughout the district prevent any promise of a speedy relief.

At Greenville the height is 39.2 feet and at Vicksburg 41.9 feet. At the latter place the rise has been two-sixteenths of a foot in the last 24 hours. The water at this point is now nine-tenths of a foot above the danger line. At Shreveport and points below the rise continues. The situation in the flooded district remains practically unchanged. Steamboat men arriving from the south report all levees in fine condition.

K. OF L. BOARD IN SESSION.

Sovereign and McGuire Will Speak Against Arbitration Treaty.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The executive board of the Knights of Labor is holding its quarterly meeting, which will continue for several days. Messrs. Sovereign, McGuire, Martin, Best and Hayes are in attendance. The board authorized the denial of published reports that there is dissatisfaction with the administration of Secretary-Treasurer Hayes and that he will resign.

Messrs. Sovereign and McGuire will go to New York tonight to speak against the arbitration treaty at the meeting of the Monroe league in Cooper Union. "We do not oppose the principle of arbitration," said Mr. Sovereign, "but we do not believe in placing the interests of a republic in the hands of a king whose business is to destroy republics."

A Crazy Man's Triple Crime.

PHILADELPHIA, March 18.—Frederick Franks has shot and killed his son William, aged 9 years, shot and badly wounded his daughter Amelia, 5 years old, and then turned the revolver on himself, sending a bullet into his breast near the heart, from which he died, at his home in this city. He was evidently temporarily insane.

Gage Agrees to Participate.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Secretary Gage has accepted an invitation to take part in the ceremonies incident to the turning over of the monument to the city government on April 27. It is expected that other cabinet officers and possibly the president will participate.

Postmaster Hering Resigns.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Postmaster Washington Hering has tendered his resignation to the president. Mr. Hering is running for mayor.

THE TONSILINE CO., CANTON, O.

SNAG FOR SHERMAN.

He Gave the Ohio Ex-Librarian a Job.

NOW HE IS RECONSIDERING.

Representatives of the Other Countries in the Bureau of American Republics Object to Smith's Appointment as Director—Reasons For Their Action.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Secretary Sherman has called for the resignation of Clinton Furbush as director of the bureau of American republics, and the place is to be filled by the appointment of Joseph Smith, of Ohio, formerly state librarian. Mr. Furbush will tender his resignation, but the conditions under which the change is made have given rise to much talk in the diplomatic corps and some intimations of a possible contest. Mr. Furbush was appointed to his position by President Cleveland at the beginning of his administration.

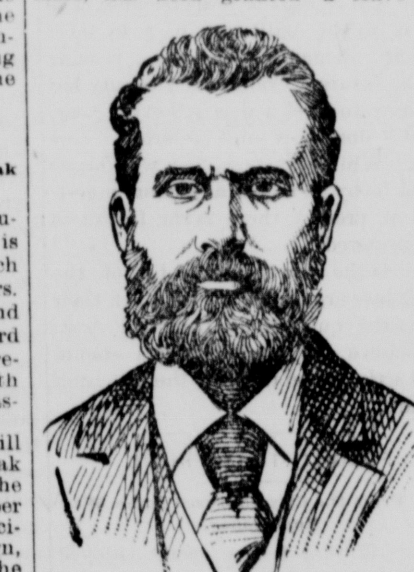

Last June Secretary Olney called a meeting of the representatives of the American republics party to the agreement under which the bureau is conducted and a reorganization was effected. Part of the new plan was a civil service scheme, by the terms of which no removals of employees of the bureau were to be made without stated cause and appointments were to be made under civil service rules. In some quarters it is held that by entering into this agreement and reorganization the United States has surrendered exclusive jurisdiction over the director and employees of the bureau, while on the other hand it is alleged that the action never took such form as to prevent the operation of the act of congress placing the entire bureau under the control of the state department.

Secretary Sherman received a call from the majority of the executive committee of the bureau, namely Senator Romero, Mexican minister; Senator Andrad, the Venezuelan minister, and Senator Mendonca, the Brazilian minister. Their purpose was to discuss with the secretary the proposed change in the directorate of the bureau and to endeavor to arrive at an understanding as to the exact status of that official. It was announced at the conclusion of the conference that action in the matter had been suspended by Secretary Sherman for a day or two, in which time a decision may be expected to be reached.

NEW NICARAGUA CANAL TREATY.

Minister Rodriguez Awaiting an Invitation to Negotiate.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Senator Rodriguez, the minister of the greater republic of Central America, comprising Nicaragua, Salvador and Guatemala, has been granted a leave of absence by his government, but has remained here in hope of negotiating a new treaty on the basis of the Frelinghuysen treaty, which was pending when Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated in 1885, and was withdrawn from the senate by him.

There are some modifications which time and experience have shown would be advantageous to both countries, which the minister would like to see incorporated in any new treaty. It is probable that the state department is fully advised as to the minister's wishes, but as yet he has not been invited to enter upon negotiations. If such an invitation is not extended the minister will take his leave of absence and await some more favorable time for them upon his return to the United States next autumn.

DEBATE OF TEN DAYS.

Tariff Framers Will Introduce the Bill in the House Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee have had a conference to outline the program for the tariff bill in the house. The length of time to be given to debate in the house was not definitely decided, but it probably will be ten days. Night sessions will be held and with "leave to print" speeches in the Congressional Record, it is expected that all members who desire to present their views on the tariff will be able to record their arguments to their satisfaction.

The program agreed upon by the Republicans will be submitted to the full ways and means committee as a matter of form, and probably will be adopted by a party vote.

According to the desire of the framers of the tariff bill no amendments to it will be made in the house except those which have the sanction of the committee.

The Republicans went through the bill to correct some errors in the phraseology. One important change in rates was made. Asphalt and bituminous, not advanced, were put at $1.50 a ton, and in advanced or improved form at $3 a ton.

Chairman Dingley explained that these products, it seemed to the committee, were good articles to raise revenue on, most of the supply being imported and being controlled by a close corporation.

EIGHTY-TWO LIVES LOST.

Shipwrecked Sailors Rescued—Two of the Survivors Insane.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The steamer Ville de St. Naisare, belonging to the French line to the West Indies, sailed from New York on March 6 for Port Au Prince, Maya Guez, etc., with 82 persons on board and has not since been reported.

The schooner Hilda, that plies along the coast between Perth Amboy and Savannah, has come into port bearing four survivors found in an open boat.

Dead bodies were in the boat with them. About all that could be obtained from the men for a time was that there were 37 in the boat, but they died of hardships, all but four.

Two of the survivors were insane. They managed to talk a little after awhile.

The steamship encountered severe weather on March 7, while off Hatteras. Tremendous seas swept over her. She rolled and pitched. Great waves bore away the hatch coverings. Floods of water found their way through the gratings to the engine room and extinguished the fires.

The vessel was unable to make any headway, being waterlogged, and was abandoned. It is believed the three other lifeboats were lost.

Suicide Due to Dissipation.

ST. LOUIS, March 18.—W. J. Johnson, formerly a wealthy stock buyer of Indianapolis, has been found dead in a Clark street hotel. His last days evidently had been spent in dissipation, and this fact likely induced him to commit suicide.

Accused of Robbery in Chicago.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 18.—Detectives have arrested Peter Bunde, alias Haanelerger, on information from the Chicago police, charging him with complicity in a series of holdups of saloon keepers.

Work for Crippled Convicts.

COLUMBUS, March 18.—T. R. Rose and T. H. McConica, of the penitentiary board, have signed a contract which will put at work 300 convicts who are not able-bodied and who have been in the idle houses because unable to do heavy work. Arthur T. Hollock will give the 300 prisoners, chiefly cripples and invalids, work at making gloves.

For the first time in many days the river is stationary, marking 36.6, but the rise at Cairo and the reported heavy rains in Missouri and other states will only serve to increase the broad expanse of water in this vicinity. There has been a steady downpour of rain in Arkansas and west Tennessee.

At Cairo the gauge indicates 49.6 feet. At Helena a rise of four-tenths of a foot occurred in 24 hours, the gauge showing 45.9 feet. Heavy rains throughout the district prevent any promise of a speedy relief.

At Greenville the height is 39.2 feet and at Vicksburg 41.9 feet. At the latter place the rise has been two-sixteenths of a foot in the last 24 hours. The water at this point is now nine-tenths of a foot above the danger line. At Shreveport and points below the rise continues. The situation in the flooded district remains practically unchanged. Steamboat men arriving from the south report all levees in fine condition.

K. OF L. BOARD IN SESSION.

Sovereign and McGuire Will Speak Against Arbitration Treaty.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The executive board of the Knights of Labor is holding its quarterly meeting, which will continue for several days. Messrs. Sovereign, McGuire, Martin, Best and Hayes are in attendance. The board authorized the denial of published reports that there is dissatisfaction with the administration of Secretary-Treasurer Hayes and that he will resign.

Messrs. Sovereign and McGuire will go to New York tonight to speak against the arbitration treaty at the meeting of the Monroe league in Cooper Union. "We do not oppose the principle of arbitration," said Mr. Sovereign, "but we do not believe in placing the interests of a republic in the hands of a king whose business is to destroy republics."

A Crazy Man's Triple Crime.

PHILADELPHIA, March 18.—Frederick Franks has shot and killed his son William, aged 9 years, shot and badly wounded his daughter Amelia, 5 years old, and then turned the revolver on himself, sending a bullet into his breast near the heart, from which he died, at his home in this city. He was evidently temporarily insane.

Gage Agrees to Participate.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Secretary Gage has accepted an invitation to take part in the ceremonies incident to the turning over of the monument to the city government on April 27. It is expected that other cabinet officers and possibly the president will participate.

Postmaster Hesing Resigns.

SNAG FOR SHERMAN.

He Gave the Ohio Ex-Librarian a Job.

NOW HE IS RECONSIDERING.

Representatives of the Other Countries in the Bureau of American Republics Object to Smith's Appointment as Director—Reasons For Their Action.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Secretary Sherman has called for the resignation of Clinton Furbish as director of the bureau of American republics, and the place is to be filled by the appointment of Joseph Smith, of Ohio, formerly state librarian. Mr. Furbish will tender his resignation, but the conditions under which the change is made have given rise to much talk in the diplomatic corps and some intimations of a possible contest. Mr. Furbish was appointed to his position by President Cleveland at the beginning of his administration.

Last June Secretary Olney called a meeting of the representatives of the American republics party to the agreement under which the bureau is conducted and a reorganization was effected. Part of the new plan was a civil service scheme, by the terms of which no removals of employees of the bureau were to be made without stated cause and appointments were to be made under civil service rules. In some quarters it is held that by entering into this agreement and reorganization the United States has surrendered exclusive jurisdiction over the director and employees of the bureau, while on the other hand it is alleged that the action never took such form as to prevent the operation of the act of congress placing the entire bureau under the control of the state department.

Secretary Sherman received a call from the majority of the executive committee of the bureau, namely Senor Romero, Mexican minister; Senor Andradra, the Venezuelan minister, and Senor Mendonca, the Brazilian minister. Their purpose was to discuss with the secretary the proposed change in the directorate of the bureau and to endeavor to arrive at an understanding as to the exact status of that official. It was announced at the conclusion of the conference that action in the matter had been suspended by Secretary Sherman for a day or two, in which time a decision may be expected to be reached.

NEW NICARAGUA CANAL TREATY.

Minister Rodriguez Awaiting an Invitation to Negotiate.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Senor Rodriguez, the minister of the greater republic of Central America, comprising Nicaragua, Salvador and Guatemala, has been granted a leave of absence by his government, but has remained here in hope of negotiating a new treaty on the basis of the Frelinghuysen treaty, which was pending when Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated in 1885, and was withdrawn from the senate by him.

There are some modifications which time and experience have shown would be advantageous to both countries, which the minister would like to see incorporated in any new treaty. It is probable that the state department is fully advised as to the minister's wishes, but as yet he has not been invited to enter upon negotiations. If such an invitation is not extended the minister will take his leave of absence and await some more favorable time for them upon his return to the United States next autumn.

DEBATE OF TEN DAYS.

Tariff Framers Will Introduce the Bill in the House Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The Republican members of the ways and means committee have had a conference to outline the program for the tariff bill in the house. The length of time to be given to debate in the house was not definitely decided, but it probably will be ten days. Night sessions will be held and with "leave to print" speeches in the Congressional Record, it is expected that all members who desire to present their views on the tariff will be able to record their arguments to their satisfaction.

The program agreed upon by the Republicans will be submitted to the full ways and means committee as a matter of form, and probably will be adopted by a party vote.

According to the desire of the framers of the tariff bill no amendments to it will be made in the house except those which have the sanction of the committee.

The Republicans went through the bill to correct some errors in the phraseology. One important change in rates was made. Asphalt and bituminous, not advanced, were put at $1.50 a ton, and in advanced or improved form at $3 a ton.

EIGHTY-TWO LIVES LOST.

Shipwrecked Sailors Rescued—Two of the Survivors Insane.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The steamer Ville de St. Naisare, belonging to the French line to the West Indies, sailed from New York on March 6 for Port Au Prince, Maya Guez, etc., with 82 persons on board and has not since been reported.

The schooner Hilda, that plies along the coast between Perth Amboy and Savannah, has come into port bearing four survivors found in an open boat.

Dead bodies were in the boat with them. About all that could be obtained from the men for a time was that there were 37 in the boat, but they died of hardships, all but four.

Two of the survivors were insane. They managed to talk a little after awhile.

The steamship encountered severe weather on March 7, while off Hatteras. Tremendous seas swept over her. She rolled and pitched. Great waves bore away the hatch coverings. Floods of water found their way through the gratings to the engine room and extinguished the fires.

The vessel was unable to make any headway, being waterlogged, and was abandoned. It is believed the three other lifeboats were lost.

Suicide Due to Dissipation.

ST. LOUIS, March 18.—W. J. Johnson, formerly a wealthy stock buyer of Indianapolis, has been found dead in a Clark street hotel. His last days evidently had been spent in dissipation, and this fact likely induced him to commit suicide.

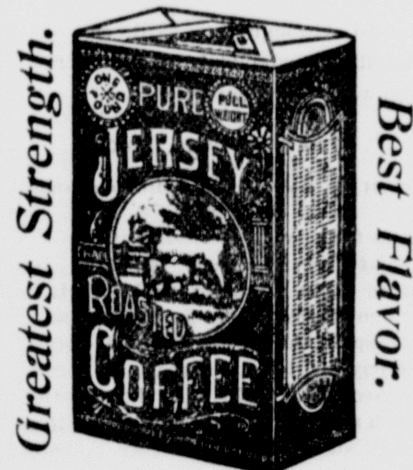

Accused of Robbery in Chicago.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 18.—Detectives have arrested Peter Bunde, alias Haanaberger, on information from the Chicago police, charging him with complicity in a series of holdups of saloon keepers.

Work for Crippled Convicts.

COLUMBUS, March 18.—T. R. Rose and T. H. McConica, of the penitentiary board, have signed a contract which will put at work 300 convicts who are not alibed and who have been in the idle houses because unable to do heavy work. Arthur T. Hollock will give the 300 prisoners, chiefly cripples and invalids, work at making gloves.

FITZ IS THE CHAMPION

Corbett Settled by a Hard Blow Over the Heart.

FIGHT ENDED IN THE 14TH ROUND.

The Californian Had Much the Best of It Up to the Time the Deciding Blow Was Struck—Australian Received Severe Punishment.

CARSON CITY, Nev., March 18.—Under a clear sky and in a valley 5,000 feet above the sea, encircled by snow-capped mountains, which glistened in the bright sunlight, making a picture such as was never seen before on an occasion of the kind, James J. Corbett went down to defeat before Robert Fitzsimmons who became the champion heavyweight pugilist of the world. The victory was not gained without a struggle; in fact, victory did not seem possible for Fitzsimmons until the last moment of the battle. He was giving every indication of slowly going to pieces when he delivered a blow in a vital part, and followed it with two others which sent the Californian to the floor with the agony of pain and despair imprinted on his face and he was unable to rise within the limit which would save him.

When the defeated champion finally arose with the assistance of his trainers and recovered sufficiently from his dazed condition to realize the calamity that had befallen him, he broke out with all the fury of an enraged animal, and, discarding all the rules which govern a fight, rushed at his victorious opponent and made a vain struggle to beat him over the ropes, only desisting when his own seconds and friends forced him away, and then the new champion was borne to his dressingroom amid the cheers of the 5,000 people who were in the arena, accompanied by his seconds and trainers, and also by his wife, who had watched the contest from a position within a few feet of the ringside, and who had taken in every detail, even at the time when it seemed that her husband would be knocked insensible at his feet.

It was a great contest, but notwithstanding the cheers for the victor, the majority of those who witnessed the fight could not but feel a sense of disappointment at the result, believing as they did that victory was taken from Corbett at a moment when he seemed sure of gaining it himself.

The contest was accompanied by the usual delays which attend such affairs, due largely to a wait for the hour when the sunlight would be the brightest, so that the new electrical device—the vascope—which was located at the ringside, would be able to obtain the best results in taking an actual living picture of the fight.

Little was accomplished by either of the men in the first round, but in the next few rounds Corbett had every advantage. In the fifth round he punished Fitzsimmons severely, battering him on the face and body until the blood streamed from his face and he finally sank to his knees to avoid further punishment, remaining there until nearly all the allotted time had expired, when he arose and succeeded in continuing the contest for the few remaining seconds of the round. Nearly all the spectators thought the end was at hand, but the Australian rallied and fought a game battle, for nearly eight rounds more, though there were several occasions during that time when Corbett seemed to have had him going. He did land a number of blows on Corbett and they were hard, too, but they seemed to have little effect on him.

At the opening of the fourteenth and last round Corbett looked the winner. Though somewhat tired, he was still strong and displaying more science and continued to pound the Australian and keep up the flow of the stream of blows. And then came the final blow and the end. The blow which ended the fight was a left hand punch delivered just below the heart. It was all the more effective for the reason that Corbett was leaning backward when it came. It caught him on the tensely drawn muscles just over the spleen and must have caused the most intense agony. Corbett was more unconscious from pain than from the force of the blow. As he lay writhing and groveling on the floor his face presented the most ghastly appearance imaginable. No man in a last death struggle could have horrified the spectators more and his agonizing cries of pain could be heard above the cheers for the victor.

And then followed the wildest scene of the day, when he arose to his feet and with all the strength he had left, rushed at his opponent and tried to finish the contest. Those nearest the ring jumped over the ropes, in spite of all efforts of the police to prevent them, and in a moment the entire enclosure was filled with a howling, shouting mob, and the noise and confusion were so great that the referee was hardly able to announce his decision awarding the battle to Fitz. In the midst of it all Corbett, who had been forced to his corner by his friends, broke away from and rushed at Fitz a second time, but this time instead of attempting to renew the fight he implored his victor to give him another chance and to accept a challenge from him. This was refused and warm words followed. Fitz was borne away with all the glory of his new won victory, and Corbett left to return to his home in San Francisco, carrying with him the despair of defeat.

Fitzsimmons injured the thumb of his right hand. He said after the fight that Corbett gave him considerable punishment.

Said he: "Corbett talks about a return fight and says he will follow me from town to town until I give him a return battle. I am now 36 years of age, have fought more championship battles than any two men in ancient or modern ring annals and shall retire. I will never fight again."

The Flaherty-Hawkins fight was soon over. They fought at 125 pounds. There was one exchange of blows, a clinch and a knockout, Flaherty going down as though he had been shot. It was all over in one minute and four seconds.

The fight between "Mysterious" Billy Smith and George Green, welterweights, followed immediately. Smith had the worst of it until the end of the eleventh round, when he gave up the fight, saying that his arm had been broken in the fourth round.

MAD MRS. FITZSIMMONS.

She Acted Like a Perfect Fury During the Fight.

CARSON CITY, Nev., March 18.—One of the most dramatic features of the battle was the part Mrs. Fitzsimmons played in the victory of her husband. She sat almost under the chair in Bob's corner, which she stood upon as the battle progressed. At every blow which her lanky spouse received from his antagonist her eyes bulged out and with her fists clenched she cried:

"The hound," "the puppy," "punch him, Bob," "kill him." The plan of battle after the first round was highly displeasing to Mrs. Fitzsimmons and in no gentle terms she chided the seconds for not advising different tactics. "Make him keep punching Corbett's wind and he will win," she screamed. "You idiots, you don't know how to second a man, you have lost your senses. Do you want to defeat my husband. Do as I tell you now or I'll make you wish you had."

At the end of every round as the New Zealander stretched himself back in his chair, she shouted to him words of encouragement and advice, continually insisting that he aim the blows at Corbett's body and let the face alone. "It's the only way to whip the hound, Bob," she cried over and over, "and if you do as I tell you he can't land in the last round. The whelp is going now, hit on the body, punch him in the wind."

When the end came, and Corbett stayed upon his knees until the fatal ten had been counted, Mrs. Fitzsimmons was almost mad with joy. From his corner Corbett made his way to Fitzsimmons' corner and desperately attempted to continue the fight, the new champion's wife, beside herself with rage, clambered upon the platform and frantically struggled to get at the defeated man.

"I'll kill him," she screamed, "I'll kill the coward," and Corbett would have had a woman to deal with, and a rather formidable woman at that, had several of her friends not restrained her. She was carried back to her husband's corner and then off the stage.

As soon as the turmoil inside the ropes had subsided she rushed to the conqueror's dressing room where she affectionately greeted him, unmindful of the blood which dripped from his face and stained breast and arms.

Said she: "My husband is the greatest fighter the world has ever known and it was only to be expected that he would win the championship at the first opportunity he had. I am going back to the baby now and tell him that he is the son and namesake of the champion of the world. I am the happiest woman in all the world today. Now Bob and the baby and I will settle down to a more quiet life."

BIG EXPEDITION TO CUBA.

Three Unknown Steamers Seen on Their Way to the Island.

KEY WEST, March 18.—A fishing schooner reports seeing three large steamers passing Cape Florida island Friday noon going south. They were well out and seemed to be under full speed. One of the vessels had an unusually large number of men on deck while one of the others seemed heavily laden. No names could be made out, seemingly light covered up.

This seemingly corroborates the leaving of the expedition from Key Palo Alto Thursday. It indicates that the secured the immense amount of material stored on the keys and that Captain Lewis and Colonels Nunez and Lewis their business when there Carbo knew here now openly state that three large expeditions have left the United States' shores within the last three days.

And then followed the wildest scene of the day, when he arose to his feet and with all the strength he had left, rushed at his opponent and tried to finish the contest. Those nearest the ring jumped over the ropes, in spite of all efforts of the police to prevent them, and in a moment the entire enclosure was filled with a howling, shouting mob, and the noise and confusion were so great that the referee was hardly able to announce his decision awarding the battle to Fitz. In the midst of it all Corbett, who had been forced to his corner by his friends, broke away from and rushed at Fitz a second time, but this time instead of attempting to renew the fight he implored his victor to give him another chance and to accept a challenge from him. This was refused and warm words followed. Fitz was borne away with all the glory of his new won victory, and Corbett left to return to his home in San Francisco, carrying with him the despair of defeat.

Fitzsimmons injured the thumb of his right hand. He said after the fight that Corbett gave him considerable punishment.

Said he: "Corbett talks about a return fight and says he will follow me from town to town until I give him a return battle. I am now 36 years of age, have fought more championship battles than any two men in ancient or modern ring annals and shall retire. I will never fight again."

The Flaherty-Hawkins fight was soon over. They fought at 128 pounds. There was one exchange of blows, a clinch and a knockout. Flaherty going down as though he had been shot. It was all over in one minute and four seconds.

The fight between "Mysterious" Billy Smith and George Green, welterweights, followed immediately. Smith had the worst of it until the end of the eleventh round, when he gave up the fight, saying that his arm had been broken in the fourth round.

MAD MRS. FITZSIMMONS.

She Acted Like a Perfect Fury During the Fight.

CARSON CITY, Nev., March 18.—One of the most dramatic features of the battle was the part Mrs. Fitzsimmons played in the victory of her husband. She sat almost under the chair in Bob's corner, which she stood upon as the battle progressed. At every blow which her lanky spouse received from his antagonist her eyes bulged out and with her fists clenched she cried:

"The hound," "the puppy," "punch him, Bob," "kill him." The plan of battle after the first round was highly displeasing to Mrs. Fitzsimmons and in no gentle terms she chided the seconds for not advising different tactics. "Make him keep punching Corbett's wind and he will win," she screamed. "You idiots, you don't know how to second a man, you have lost your senses. Do you want to defeat my husband. Do as I tell you now or I'll make you wish you had."

At the end of every round as the New Zealander stretched himself back in his chair, she shouted to him words of encouragement and advice, continually insisting that he aim the blows at Corbett's body and let the face alone. "It's the only way to whip the hound, Bob," she cried over and over, "and if you do as I tell you he can't land in the last round. The whelp is going now, hit on the body, punch him in the wind."

When the end came, and Corbett stayed upon his knees until the fatal ten had been counted, Mrs. Fitzsimmons was almost mad with joy. From his corner Corbett made his way to Fitzsimmons' corner and desperately attempted to continue the fight, the new champion's wife, beside herself with rage, clambered upon the platform and frantically struggled to get at the defeated man.

"I'll kill him," she screamed, "I'll kill the coward," and Corbett would have had a woman to deal with, and a rather formidable woman at that, had several of her friends not restrained her. She was carried back to her husband's corner and then off the stage.

As soon as the turmoil inside the ropes had subsided she rushed to the conqueror's dressing room where she affectionately greeted him, unmindful of the blood which dripped from his face and stained his breast and arms. Said she: "My husband is the greatest fighter the world has ever known and it was only to be expected that he would win the championship at the first opportunity he had. I am going back to the baby now and tell him that he is the son and namesake of the champion of the world. I am the happiest woman in all the world today. Now Bob and the baby and I will settle down to a more quiet life."

EMPEROR GOING INSANE.

Grave News Received in London as to the German Ruler's Health—One of His Pastimes is to Trip His Guests With His Sword.

LONDON, March 18.—The Daily Chronicle states: "Grave news has been received in London with respect to the health of Emperor William, of Germany, and certain constitutional possibilities are being discussed."

The above seems to substantiate certain rumors regarding the emperor of late. He is reported to have become weak mentally and indulges in some very freakish actions, such as tripping his guests with his sword.

BIG EXPEDITION TO CUBA.

Three Unknown Steamers Seen on Their Way to the Island.

KEY WEST, March 18.—A fishing schooner reports seeing three large steamers passing Cape Florida island Friday noon going south. They were well out and seemed to be under full speed. One of the vessels had an unusually large number of men on deck while one of the others seemed heavily laden. No names could be made out, seemingly light covered up.

This seemingly corroborates the leaving of the expedition from Key West Thursday. It indicates that they secured the immense amount of material stored on the keys and that Captain Lewis and Colonel Nunez and their Lewis and their business when there. Cuban news now openly state that three large expeditions have left the United States' shores within the last three days.

Apollo's Harp

Was the ancient forerunner of the piano. Its pleasant, plaintive strains, struck by the hand of the apt minstrel, made the finest music of which the Greeks knew anything about. Had they heard the tones of one of our magnificent upright pianos, their feelings would have been akin to those of a man who hears the music at St. Peter's, in Rome, during passion week, for the first time in his life. Our pianos are perfect in every way known to manufacturers.

Harry Mickley of Salem, filed an action for divorce from Blanch Mickley last night, and an action against John Post, of that place, for $5,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections. Post is named as correspondent in the divorce proceedings, and is charged with the destruction of the Mickley home. The Mickley's were married nine years ago, and have a daughter. They were happy until Oct. 10, when Post began to notice his wife. He called on her, the petition alleges, on every possible occasion, and induced her to go driving with him when she would remain from home as late in the night as 2 o'clock. These rides would occur as often as 19 times a month. Mickley says he has had sufficient means to properly care for her.

The case of George J. Koch, of Waterford, against the Mutual Life Insurance company is on trial today. Koch got a verdict a year ago for $5,402.50, due as insurance on the life of Emor T. Stitler, late of Waterford. It was appealed to circuit court on error, and it remanded to common pleas for trial.

GOOD TIME

Was Made at the Bicycle Race Last Night.

The four day bicycle race began at the rink last night with four starters, Rex, Holtzman, Frederick and Risinger. The riding was very speedy, and in a short time Risinger was one lap behind, and finally dropped out after covering 36 laps. Rex by hard riding gained four laps, but a fall by Risinger caused him to lose one of them. The score: Rex, 75 miles, 6 laps; Frederick, 75 miles, 3 laps; Holtzman, 75 miles, 3 laps.

THOUGHT CORBETT WAS DEAD.

A Senseless Story Alarmed the Sports in the City.

A story was current in the city last night that Jim Corbett had died from the effects of the knockout blow delivered by Fitzsimmons. It at once created excitement, and there was no end of pity in some quarters while others thought Fitzsimmons should be strung up without ceremony. At length someone heard from Pittsburgh that there was nothing in the story, and all was quiet again.

But the Father Quickly Brought His Son Home.

Another sensational story comes from the West End. Suspicious movements of a young couple and their sudden departure surprised their parents. They have loved each other, and it is thought they concluded to have the holy bonds made secure. At any rate, one of the parents made search for his missing son and found him at a city not far down the river. He was brought home, but the young lady, whose age is somewhere in the neighborhood of 15, has not yet been found. Later investigation may develop an elopement.

A HARD FIGHT

For the Insignificant Position on the Water Board.

An unusually strong fight is being made for the position of water works trustee, and the campaign is as hot as though the place paid $5,000 a year instead of about $50. The air is full of what has been done in the past and what can be done in the future, all sorts and conditions of stories flying about like rain. A considerable interest has already been aroused, and there will be more, we are told, before election rolls around.

A great many people look healthy and are not. There are many forms of sickness which leave an outward semblance of health. This fictitious health is like a bubble that bursts at a touch. It is like an empty egg shell that the slightest pressure will crush. The outside of the body may look all right long after disease has begun its dreadful work inside. If a man looks well and doesn't feel well, he had better be governed by the feeling not by the looks. A great many apparently strong and vigorous men collapse suddenly. They have what is known as nervous prostration. They go along persistently day after day working hard and thinking hard, apparently healthy and strong, but it isn't a safe thing to do. Whenever there is nervousness, or insomnia, or undue fatigue from ordinary work, when irritability takes the place of contentment, when a man isn't sick but doesn't feel quite well, then is the time he should begin to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the best tonic medicine and nerve food, or invigorator in the world. It assists digestion, increases the appetite, promotes thorough assimilation of the food, purifies the blood and adds to it the life-giving principles that are needed to feed the starved nerves. It puts the whole body into perfect tune, and stimulates each organ to do the work for which it was intended. Thousands of people have been brought back to happiness and vigorous health. Thousands of people have been cured of most serious sickness by this wonderful medicine. Druggists sell it.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They are East Liverpool People, and What they say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on:

Mrs. A. Searight, No. 152 High street, East End, says: "I had a severe attack of kidney disease over a year ago which confined me to my bed for about three months. It affected my entire system and while I have been able to be about I never got completely rid of it. I suffered almost constantly with a dull heavy pain across the loins; if I sat for any length of time, or did anything that brought me into a stooping position and attempted to rise, there would be a sharp shooting pain in the small of my back that felt as if a knife or other sharp instrument had pierced me. I could not sleep when I went to bed, expecting to get rest. I was often robbed of it by nervousness in my mind. I had to have my room unrefreshed and more tired and worn out than I was when I retired. I had taken so much medicine without being cured that I was discouraged. I belong to the Daughters of Liberty and the Maccabees and notified them to drop me, but they refused to do so; this made me more determined than ever to get well, as I did not want to be a burden to them. Doan's Kidney Pills presented themselves in the form of a news paper account. I got some at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They proved to be the proper remedy for me. Their mild and gentle influence gradually reduced the pain in my back and strengthened the weakness. I am not suffering in any way since taking them, all the symptoms having disappeared. I rest well at night and am gaining in strength and weight every day. Of course I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills; it would not be right to refuse to, for the benefit of other sufferers."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Stoves which concealed the fire were in use in Greek and Roman households. The ancients also employed open tubes of metal or earthenware, and, in addition, heated their rooms with charcoal braziers. Grates for the burning of coal were employed two centuries ago in Great Britain. Many thousands of patents have been taken out upon stoves and ranges since Franklin and Count Rumford pointed out the waste of fuel and of heat involved in open fireplaces. In Great Britain and on the continent of Europe today flat sheet iron vessels, somewhat resembling baking pans, covered and filled with hot water, are used to warm the feet of travelers in railroad cars.

Apollo's Harp

Was the ancient forerunner of the piano. Its pleasant, plaintive strains, struck by the hand of the apt minstrel, made the finest music of which the Greeks knew anything about. Had they heard the tones of one of our magnificent upright pianos, their feelings would have been akin to those of a man who hears the music at St. Peter's, in Rome, during passion week, for the first time in his life. Our pianos are perfect in every way known to manufacturers.

Auditor Harvey Makes a Statement of the Money Distributed By the February Settlement—Other News of Lisbon—The Grind of the Courts.

Lisbon, March 18.—[Special]—It is always interesting to the people to know how the public funds are distributed. Auditor Harvey has completed the tabulation of funds as apportioned to the corporations, townships and school districts of Columbiana county, showing the amount of 1896 taxes which are to be given to the treasurers of the various corporations and townships in accord with the February, 1897, settlement. Harry Mickley of Salem, filed an action for divorce from Blanch Mickley last night, and an action against John Post, of that place, for $5,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections. Post is named as correspondent in the divorce proceedings, and is charged with the destruction of the Mickley home. The Mickleys were married nine years ago, and have a daughter. They were happy until Oct. 10, when Post began to notice his wife. He called on her, the petition alleges, on every possible occasion, and induced her to go driving with him when she would remain from home as late in the night as 2 o'clock. These rides would occur as often as 19 times a month. Mickley says he has had sufficient means to properly care for her.

The case of George J. Koch, of Waterford, against the Mutual Life Insurance company is on trial today. Koch got a verdict a year ago for $5,402.50, due as insurance on the life of Emor T. Sittler, late of Waterford. It was appealed to circuit court on error, and it remanded to common pleas for trial.

GOOD TIME

Was Made at the Bicycle Race Last Night.

The four day bicycle race began at the rink last night with four starters, Rex, Holtzman, Frederick and Risinger. The riding was very speedy, and in a short time Risinger was one lap behind, and finally dropped out after covering 36 miles. Rex by hard riding gained four laps, but a fall by Risinger caused him to lose one of them. The score: Rex, 75 miles, 6 laps; Frederick, 75 miles, 3 laps; Holtzman, 75 miles, 3 laps.

THOUGHT CORBETT WAS DEAD.

A Senseless Story Alarmed the Sports In the City.

A story was current in the city last night that Jim Corbett had died from the effects of the knockout blow delivered by Fitzsimmons. It at once created excitement, and there was no end of pity in some quarters while others thought Fitzsimmons should be strung up without ceremony. At length someone heard from Pittsburgh that there was nothing in the story, and all was quiet again.

THEY DISAPPEARED.

But the Father Quickly Brought His Son Home.

Another sensational story comes from the West End. Suspicious movements of a young couple and their sudden departure surprised their parents. They have loved each other, and it is thought they concluded to have the holy bonds made secure. At any rate, one of the parents made search for his missing son and found him at a city not far down the river. He was brought home, but the young lady, whose age is somewhere in the neighborhood of 15, has not yet been found. Later investigation may develop an elopement.

A HARD FIGHT

For the Insignificant Position on the Water Board.

An unusually strong fight is being made for the position of water works trustee, and the campaign is as hot as though the place paid $5,000 a year instead of about $50. The air is full of what has been done in the past and what can be done in the future, all sorts and conditions of stories flying about like rain. A considerable interest has already been aroused, and there will be more, we are told, before election rolls around.

A great many people look healthy and are not. There are many forms of sickness which leave an outward semblance of health. This fictitious health is like a bubble that bursts at a touch. It is like an empty egg shell that the slightest pressure will crush. The outside of the body may look all right long after disease has begun its dreadful work inside. If a man looks well and doesn't feel well, he had better be governed by the feeling not by the looks. A great many apparently strong and vigorous men collapse suddenly. They have what is known as nervous prostration. They go along persistently day after day, working hard and thinking hard, apparently healthy, and some day they go home and go to bed and don't get up again. The trouble didn't all come at once. It came on gradually. A strong man can live on his nerves and his health for a long time without apparent injury, but it isn't a safe thing to do. Whenever there is nervousness, or insomnia, or undue fatigue from ordinary work, when irritability takes the place of contentment, when a man "isn't sick but doesn't feel quite well"—then is the time he should begin to take Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery. It is the best tonic medicine and nerve food, or invigorator in the world. It assists digestion, increases the appetite, promotes thorough assimilation of the food, purifies the blood and adds to it the life-giving principles that are needed to feed the starved nerves. It puts the whole body into perfect tune, and stimulates each organ to do the work for which it was intended. Thousands of people have been brought back to happiness and vigorous health. Thousands of people have been cured of most serious sickness by this wonderful medicine. Druggists sell it.

Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only, and receive for a copy of Doctor Pierce's great thousand page book, "Common Sense Medical Adviser," in paper covers, or send 40 cents for postage and extra cost of binding and get it in cloth. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on:

Mrs. A. Searight, No. 152 High street, East End, says: "I had a severe attack of kidney disease, over a year ago, which confined me to my bed for about three months. It affected my entire system and while I have been able to be out I never got completely rid of it. I suffered almost constantly with a dull heavy pain across the loins; if I sat for any length of time, or did anything that brought me into a stooping position and attempted to rise, there would be a sharp shooting pain in the small of my back that felt as if a knife or other sharp instrument had pierced me. I could not sleep when I went to bed, expecting to get rest. I was often robbed of it by nervousness and pain in my back. I have risen up, back and more tired and worn out than I was when I retired. I had taken so much medicine without being cured that I was discouraged. I belong to the Daughters of Liberty and the Macabees and notified them to drop me, but they refused to do so; this made me more determined than ever to get well, as I did not want to be a burden to them. Doan's Kidney Pills presented themselves in the form of a news paper account. I got some at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They proved to be the proper remedy for me. Their mild and gentle influence gradually reduced the pain in my back and strengthened my weakness. I am not suffering in any way since taking them, all the symptoms having disappeared. I rest well at night and am gaining in strength and weight every day. Of course I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills; it would not be right to refuse to, for the benefit of other sufferers."

Stoves. Stoves which concealed the fire were in use in Greek and Roman households. The ancients also employed open tubes of metal or earthenware, and, in addition, heated their rooms with charcoal braziers. Grates for the burning of coal were employed two centuries ago in Great Britain. Many thousands of patents have been taken out upon stoves and ranges since Franklin and Count Rumford pointed out the waste of fuel and of heat involved in open fireplaces. In Great Britain and on the continent of Europe today flat sheet iron vessels, somewhat resembling baking pans, covered and filled with hot water, are used to warm the feet of travelers in railroad cars.
